A ROUND OF TALK.

Thanksgiving Politics

(By A. Merriam.)

The farm yard was full of a chattering crowd. All cackling at once, both long and loud. But one skittish turkey of ancient mien was gaining a hearing, 'twas plain to be seen. And ever and always his burden of song.

Was this and none other—keep lean and live long.

Said he, with conviction, the time is nigh. When for faintest bits you never need sigh. They will be offered, say urged on you, three times a day.

But to you are greedy I simply will say. You'd better eat little, you'll find I'm not wrong. Just take my advice—keep lean and live long.

I've summered and wintered it many a year. And if I am careful I've nothing to fear.

For the fat fowls are those that garnish a table. And I shall keep lean as long as I can able.

So you who love life in this gay feathered throng, Just remember my words—keep lean and live long.

STOCK LAW.—There is a growing sentiment in this county among the farmers in favor of a stock law to prevent the running at large of stock. At the recent election the question was voted on in various sections of the State, and the vote was almost invariably in favor of the passing of the law, several whole counties adopting the law. There were several neighborhoods in this county where the matter was talked of and favored, but the necessary steps towards putting the question to a vote were not taken. Owing to the scarcity of timber and the accompanying increase in the expense of fencing, we believe the time has come for Kentucky to adopt the laws for stock running at large as exist in other States. The principle seems just and correct anyway. Every man should take care of his own stock and not allow it to live on the public highway nor encroach on his neighbors. The stock law is of advantage to the poor farmer who owns little stock and depends principally on his crops for a livelihood. If he could avoid the expense of fencing against his neighbors' stock he would have that much more for the support of his family. To the rich farmer and stock raiser the law would make, but little difference. He, as a rule, has his farm well fenced, anyway, and if he is an owner of fine stock he will see to it that it is kept under fence and not allowed to disturb his neighbors. We believe that by the time of the next regular election in Washington county that the people will have given this matter consideration and will be ready to act, and we believe that if the stock law is put in force that the county will be materially benefited.

TOBACCO.—The tobacco growers of this county are becoming very impatient over the continued dry weather which makes it impossible for them to handle their tobacco so as to prepare it for the market. The marketing of their tobacco crop means everything almost to the grower, and his impatience is not to be wondered at when it is remembered that his tobacco represents his year's income and that the proceeds thereof are paid up as long as the crop remains hanging in his barn. There are no new developments concerning the Burley Tobacco Growers Association. The promoters of that concern still expect that the plans will be carried out and that a sufficient amount of the crop will be contracted for, to make the organization a go. In the meantime the Continental Company is preparing to handle tobacco here this season as usual. The new big warehouse which is being built by M. L. Searcy is about completed, and preparations are being made to open as soon as there is any tobacco to handle.

The farmers up to the present time have had absolutely no opportunity to strip their tobacco, and of course will not have until it rains. The Continental people have not done any buying in this county as yet, and consequently no line can be had on what their prices will be this season. It is pretty certain, however, that prices will run higher. The growers have had higher prices proached to them by the Burley Association people, and they have had it put to them so often that the Trust has not been paying full value for their product; that they have set their figures higher, and the chances are the buyer who succeeds in getting such tobacco this year must pay for it. The agitation has caused a good deal of feeling against the Trust and many will be inclined to seek another market unless the Trust comes forward with an increased scale of prices. By paying higher prices the Continental can easily regain a friendly feeling among the growers, who, as it is out natural and right, look to their own interests first of all.

HYPOPH.—The appearance of so many cases of typhoid fever in and about Springfield this fall has caused people to inquire if there is not some local cause. The causes of the prevalence of typhoid germs have long been a puzzle to physicians and health officers, as so far as practical world knows no definite conclusions have been reached. The germs of typhoid are often traceable to water which is being used or to other local conditions. This season as well as previous ones it has been no more prevalent in Springfield than in other localities. There are cases all over Washington county and few localities appear to be entirely free from the terrible disease. The extremely dry weather which in many cases causes the use of unhealthful water, is responsible in a large measure for the increase in the trouble, and unsanitary conditions more often are allowed to prevail where there is a scarcity of water. Citizens and housekeepers cannot be too careful about seeing to the cleanliness of their premises. The town authorities should also see to the condition of the streets and alleys of the town, where offal and disease-breeding rubbish is allowed to accumulate.

Don't Respect Old Age.
It's shameful when youth fails to respect old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off malady no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, constipation all yield to this perfect Pill. 25c at C. J. Haydon's drug store.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.
Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation is caused by a lack of water in the system and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only make a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild in effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that you can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25c bottle of the For sale by Haydon's drug store.

Day Bill Argued

In the Jessamine circuit court Monday, Hon. John G. Carlisle, as attorney for Berea College, attacked the constitutionality of the bill passed by the last legislature to prevent the education of whites and negroes in the same institution within the state of Kentucky. After the arguments had been partially completed, it was agreed that briefs might be filed with the court, and the case was continued to the February term of the Madison circuit court. The case will probably be appealed to the Court of Appeals and then to the Supreme Court of the United States, regardless of the decision of the lower court.

Favored By Both Parties

Republicans and Democrats alike praise Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and all throat and lung diseases, as no other remedy can compare with it. It is safe and sure. F. T. Slater, merchant, 271 Main street, Concord, Mass., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar cured me of a very bad cough which I had for three months though other remedies failed to benefit me. I can highly recommend it for coughs and colds. Sold by Wood & Campbell."

Terrible Tragedy.

George Carpenter Meets Death In A Tragic Manner

George Carpenter who lived in Mercer county, but was well known here, was killed in a peculiar manner near Stewart on last Wednesday. Carpenter, accompanied by his daughter, and driven in a surrey from Haydon & Thompson's livery stable, had left here Wednesday morning for the point at which he was killed. The particulars of the tragedy and the circumstances which led up to it are as follows:

George Carpenter has a daughter who, with her child, had for some months been living in Springfield with her brother, Mr. G. H. Carpenter, who was engaged in the butcher business at this place. The daughter had been married to Cleveland Sutherland, son of Mr. Lee Sutherland, a prominent citizen of the Stewart neighborhood but the couple had separated. Carpenter, the father, was in Springfield last week and taking his daughter in the hired surrey left for the home of the Sutherlands with the avowed intention of attempting to fix matters between his daughter and Young Sutherland. As they approached the Sutherland home Carpenter, it seems, ordered Lee B. Bone, the driver, and his daughter to get out of the vehicle and wait on the road. He drove on to the Sutherland house and ordered young Sutherland and Mrs. Lee Sutherland to get in with him and they drove some little distance to where Mr. Lee Sutherland was at work. Some words passed between Sutherland and Carpenter concerning the domestic relations of the people, when Carpenter drew a pistol and began firing at Sutherland. Young Cleveland Sutherland, who was in the surrey, it is said knocked the pistol up so that the bullets flew wild. The horses became frightened at the shots and ran away, turning the vehicle over and dragging it some distance. When stopped Carpenter was found in the wreck with his neck broken. He was killed instantly. Mrs. Sutherland was badly bruised, but young Sutherland escaped injury. Carpenter had been on a protracted spree and his actions before the tragedy showed that he was almost crazy from drink. He was widely known as a stock trader throughout this section of the country.

Completed His Duties.

Mr. C. T. Atkinson completed his duties as Special Judge in the Washington County Circuit Court last week and has returned home. He is greatly pleased with his experience and says he was accorded every courtesy by both the people and the bar. The majority of his rulings gave satisfaction to all parties concerned. But this is not to be wondered at as Mr. Atkinson possesses more than the ordinary amount of judicial ability and is an all round clever gentleman. Standard.

OF LOCAL INTEREST

MACKVILLE.

Few people living in Springfield and in other parts of the county realize the size and importance of some of the smaller villages of our county. Probably the next in line of importance to the county seat, is the modest little town of Mackville, which has been a settled and thriving town since the first settlement in the northwestern part of Washington county for near a hundred years. A visitor to the town of Mackville now-a-days will be struck with the general air of prosperity which seems to pervade the town. The merchants all look well pleased with the world. Among the leading merchants who make up the business interests of Mackville are James Isham, who has a big store and carries dry goods, groceries, and almost everything needed to the average housekeeper. W. F. Hall has a big stock of general merchandise, and he enjoys a big trade with the farmers for miles around. Mr. T. J. Graves carries a line of hardware, tinware, furniture, etc., and has done well in his line. Besides these Mackville has a drug-store operated by Mr. John Wyoff, and several other smaller stores. The hotel is presided over by Mrs. D. C. Thompson, who dispenses hospitality and spreads a bountiful table that has good old fashioned ways that has your modern hostelry beat a block. The Farmers Bank is a new and growing institution of the town. It was started a little over a year ago and has gradually grown in business and importance. It has a capital of $15,000 and the last statement shows deposits of over $37,000, with loans and discounts amounting to more than $41,000. Mr. J. W. Sallee is the cashier and active manager of the bank. W. B. Hatchett is president and John B. Peter vice president. The bank is a paying institution and is earning money for its stockholders who are local men.

CITY OF CHURCHES.

Mackville might be called the city of churches, and for the size of the town the houses of worship are numerous and in a flourishing condition. Probably the largest church there is the Baptist, which is a handsome structure just completed a year ago. It is large and nicely furnished and fitted out. Rev. R. L. Purdon is the pastor and he preaches there every second and fourth Sunday in each month. The Methodist church has a large congregation and is in a good condition. Rev. Todd presides over the spiritual welfare of the congregation, and he holds services two Sundays in each month. The Presbyterian church has a small but faithful congregation and Rev. W. T. Overstreet of Perryville does the preaching for the flock. The Christian denomination is represented by an organized congregation and will soon have a house of worship of its own. The foundation for the new church, 40 by 45 feet in dimensions, has just been completed and the building will be pushed as rapidly as possible. There is also a Colored Methodist church presided over by Rev. Paris which is prospering.

QUESTION OF LAW.

The Nelson Record tells of a lawsuit in which Springfield parties parties are interested, which came up at Bardonia last week, as follows: "A nice question of law was argued before Judge Daugherty in the County Court Monday, in the case of City of Bardonia vs. John B. Barber and Kent C. Barber. In September the city filed a statement in the County Court stating that a strip of land owned by defendants lying outside the city, was needed by said city for water works purposes. The Court appointed commissioners to value same. They were Less McCrackin, Henry Sotherland, and Ike Cotton. They fixed value of land and feeing at $800. The city filed exceptions to said report alleging that Kent Barber one of the defendants, had gone with commission-ers when they were fixing the value, and asked that said report be set aside. When the case was called Monday Attorneys W. C. McChord, of Springfield, and Nat W. Halstead, of this city, filed a demurrer to the statement and raised the question that the city had no right to condemn or own land outside of its limits. The matter was argued and submitted and demurrer overruled."

CRITICALLY ILL.

Mr. Otho Adams, who has been confined to his home near Simms, this county, for several months, is in a critical condition and all hope for his recovery has been abandoned. Some years ago Mr. Adams broke an arm which has ever since given him more or less pain. About a year ago he fell on the arm that had been broken, and ever since the injury has been growing worse. Dr. Ap Morgan Vance, of Louisville was called in and after an examination of the wound pronounced it a sarcoma cancer, which is incurable. Dr. Vance stated that Mr. Adams could not survive six weeks at the farthest, and that the chances were he would not live two weeks. Mr. Adams is one of the best known men in the county and has been a familiar figure in Springfield where he transacts most of his business.

DEATHS.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Cases of ten are cured by Catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Help Is Scarc

The Lancaster Record has the following in regard to the scarcity of farm help, which, it says, is causing much alarm in Gardard county: "Farmers say they have never known help to be as hard to get, nor have prices ever been so high. Any kind of a hand wanted almost twice his worth, if he will work at all. One farmer near town is paying a dollar a day and three meals for hands to shuck corn, and we know of one who last week not only paid this price but came to town every morning in a wagon and hauled the negroes to his farm, fed them and then hauled them back to town at night. This was kept up until his large crop of corn was shucked. There are plenty of negroes here but not one in ten will work at any price. The good ones are eagerly sought after, and any man who can work and will work, can get most any wages he wants. Many farmers are renting their places and moving to town for the simple reason that they can not get help to handle the crops."

Spelling Match.
HARDESTY SCHOOL, EDITOR OF NEWS-LEADER.
I will send in an account of spelling, dictation and memory match that came off last Friday night at the Hardesty school house between Willisburg Breckinridge, Brush Grove, Mt. Zion and Hardesty. The contest began with spelling; after about two hours continuous spelling the numbers were brought down to Miss Yeager of Mt. Zion, and Miss Tovie Goodlett of Hardesty. After a long contest between the two girls mentioned Miss Yeager won. The next part of the program was dictation, in which exercises Mt. Zion and Hardesty took part. The teachers were allowed to read of two lines of poetry; the pupils were to call it out, taking a word apiece. When a pupil failed to call the right word they were to step out of the line. In prose the sentences were from period to period.

Hardisty won on dictation in a few minutes. The third division was then taken up. Page 54 was assigned. The books were put in the hands of the pupils and 12 minutes given to the study of the lesson, then the books were called in and the pupils began to give their own words out until the lesson was completed. A new lesson was assigned on page 57 and time cut down to ten minutes. Hardesty won on this contest; every word but two had been called when Hardesty won. Much praise should be given

SYRUP PEPSIN
CURES INDIGESTION.

Advertising Pays

Some people may say that advertising does not pay. They are either prejudiced or misinformed. There is no factor in the growth of trade so powerful as newspaper advertising. Here is a little evidence.

A few years ago there was started on a capital of $100 in the interior town in the West a "baking powder" company. The proprietor advertised in the newspaper today is worth over $15,000,000 and pays more than $1,000,000 in annual dividends.

Newspaper advertising did it. A mineral water was discovered in one of the Eastern states. The proprietor advertised it and today the mineral water has a large sale throughout the North American continent and will pay 6 percent on $1,000,000.

Newspaper advertising did it. Five years ago a cereal food was placed on the market. At first little money was put into it but that little was put into newspaper advertising.

Today there is scarcely a home in the country upon whose table this cereal is not served. The company is worth over a million. Newspaper advertising did it.

A few years ago a mail order house began on less than $100. It prospered and now employs over 10,000 people and sells its goods throughout the civilized world.

Newspaper advertising did it. The largest retail dry goods house in the United States began business on a small capital. It has become justly famous and favorably known by the people generally.

Newspaper advertising did it. A prominent brand of soap is now being advertised. A short time ago it was unknown. Now it is used. Today almost every home in the United States is using it.

Newspaper advertising did it. Every man has a life opportunity. The question is, will he use it?

A Heavy Load

To lift that load of the stomach take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat. Sour stomach, belching, gas on stomach and all distressing conditions of the stomach that are curable are instantly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. S. S. Storm, a druggist at 297 Main St., New Britain, Conn., says: "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is giving such universal satisfaction and is so surely becoming the positive relief and subsequent cure for this distressing ailment. I feel that I am always ready to satisfy and gratify my customers by recommending it to them. I write this to show how well the remedy is spoken of here."

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure has been discovered after years of scientific experiments and will positively cure all stomach troubles told by all druggists.

Shot To Kill

Ever since free turnpikes were inaugurated in this country, Brooklyn Bridge, where toll is still collected, has been an eyesore to many people, and one or two attempts have been made to destroy it, and the keeper who collects toll takes his life in his hands. A few nights ago a man named Johnson attempted to murder Richard Rue, the toll collector at the bridge. Johnson was drunk and decided to pay his toll. Mr. Rue informed him that he would have to fork over the necessary cash or turn back. At this the drunken man drew his pistol and jumped from the boggy but felt his head striking against the edge of the porch.

Not a Sick Day Since

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw and of your Electric Bitters and I determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved and soon thereafter was entirely cured and have not been sick since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney troubles and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Presport, N. C., writes. Only 50c at C. J. Hayden druggist.

Others Praise It

Mothers everywhere praise Little Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives it has saved. It is a simple cure for coughs, croup, whooping cough, A. S. Spafford, Pharmacist of Chester, Mich., says: "Our little girl was an unconscious from a severe attack of croup. One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved and cured her and I cannot praise it too highly. One Minute Cough Cure relieves coughs, makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm, draws out inflammation and removes every cause of a cough and strain the lungs. Sold by all druggists."

Triple Tragedy

A dispatch from Williamsburg, Ky., says: A triple tragedy occurred near Cumberland Falls yesterday. George Curd was killed, Thos. Curd fatally wounded and Emma Durham killed and her body burned in her cabin. The Curd brothers inherited considerable land from a father's estate and moved on it last summer to care for timber. They had put the Durham woman on one tract to hold it, and as they were passing near the house were fired upon. Thomas Curd was shot with a shotgun first. He fell over a bank and crawled about two miles to his home. George was dead when found. It is supposed the Durham woman was killed to hide the identity of the assassins. A large searching party has gone to the scene. The Curd family was one of the oldest and wealthiest in the county.

This fall probably saved the collector's life by making Johnson's aim steady as he raised up and fired at Rue. The bullet grazed the keeper's head and passed through the weatherboarding of the house and penetrated the wall above the bed in which Mrs. Rue and child were sleeping. The keeper then grappled with the would be murderer and threw him down and had him at his mercy but refused to do him injury. Johnson finally paid his toll and went his way. It is said he is the same fellow that took a horse and left the carcass in the middle of the road a few nights ago. We understand a warrant will be issued for him—Harrisburg Herald.

A Crawfish Story

A novel and successful plan to secure water during these droughty times was adopted by Postmaster Young, says the Mt. Olive Tribune-Democrat. He was told that if he would put a cake of corn bread in one of his sukkers and dry springs the crawfish would work their way up to the surface to partake of the bread, and that a vein of water would follow them. Mr. Young tried the experiment a few evenings since and was surprised next morning to find his pool filled with eight or ten barrels of fine water. They were taken to Louisville yesterday and will be tried their next Wednesday in the Federal court. Both parties deny the offenses with which they are charged and claim that they will be able to establish their innocence.—E. Town News.

While driving a drove of cattle to his farm last Tuesday, Mr. E. A. Montgomery made a narrow escape. His cattle were at the second railroad crossing on the Danville pike, part of them had passed the crossing, when a freight train suddenly came in sight. Mr. Montgomery's crowd of the remaining ones in order to prevent them being killed, succeeded in getting them all safe beyond the crossing, but found his own horse and buggy and himself in extreme peril. To escape he had to put his horse abruptly around and in so doing his buggy was upset and the driver slightly sprained ankle. The gentleness of his horse prevented further injury, as the train passed on, the animal paying no attention to it. With a fractious horse more serious consequences might have resulted.—Lebanon Enterprise.

M. G. LEACHMAN, M. C. W. C. C. Banner Patch of Tomatoes

One of the most remarkable crops grown in Fayette county this season was a patch of tomatoes grown on three quarters of an acre of ground on the Richard Gibson place by James Hensley. The land on which the tomatoes were grown was situated in a bottom which is ordinarily marshy. It consequently was not affected by the drought and the tomatoes produced were of the finest quality, and in prodigious quantities. It was one of the first patches in the county to begin producing, and when the frost caught it, it was still red with fruit.

Mr. Hensley says that he sold 1,000 bushels of tomatoes from the patch at an average price of 75 cents a bushel. Early in the season he received $1.50 a bushel. At the average Mr. Hensley sold $750 worth of tomatoes from the patch.—Ky. Farmer.

Pearlman Telling Paper.

Have you ever played a game called "fortune telling paper"? If not you will find it very entertaining. To make the game you first cut out a piece of blotting paper, perfectly round, with pencil marks the circle into about twenty or more equal parts like the spokes of a wheel. Place this piece of blotting paper on a standard 8 inch by 10 inch card, then either make or buy a small wooden disk, the size of the blotting paper, which must be dressed like a wheel.

Place this figure in the center of the disk on a wire or pivot, so that it will turn freely. The game you have a wand in your hand which points to the figures on the disk.

Now prepare a list of cards, round, of which you must write some prophecy bearing the numbers on the disk. No. 1, No. 2, No. 3, etc., will be successful in business; No. 10, "You will have a long life and a merry one."
